

Year 2

Art Knowledge Organiser: colour, shape and line (Wassily Kandinsky)

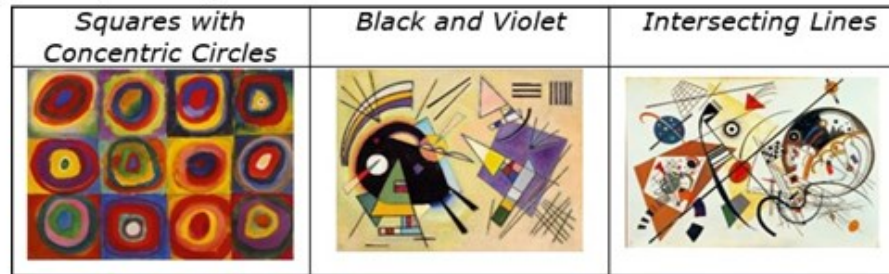

The Colour Wheel

Primary colours can be mixed to make a secondary colour.

Wassily Kandinsky

Work by Wassily Kandinsky:

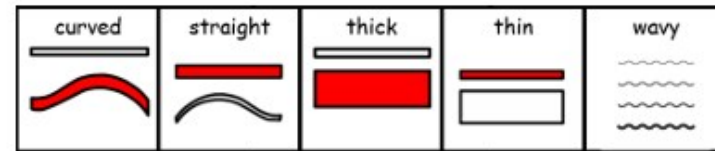

Kandinsky was a painter who made paintings that are abstract. Abstract art uses lines, colours and shapes which can represent the emotions and feelings of an artist. In abstract art, you cannot give a name to what you see.

Geometric shapes

Line

Painting skills:

